Indonesian Rebels Expecting Landing By National Units

BUKITTINGGI, Central Sumatra (AP)—Rebel troops waited today in camouflaged positions along Sumatra's west coast to meet an expected landing of central government troops near Padang.

Rebel government leaders said the Jakarta government would probably follow up minor naval and air swipes at Padang Monday with landings 35 miles on either side of the Indian Ocean port 50 miles from Bukittinggi, the rebel mountain capital.

Ike Asks Road Building Boost

$2.2 Billion Added To Highway Planning

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration spelled out its highway acceleration program to the Senate today, with some Democrats questioning whether it would be big enough.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks appeared before the Public Roads subcommittee to explain the administration's plan to put an additional $2.2 billion into the national superhighway network in the next three years.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.), the subcommittee chairman, said before the hearing he was sticking to his bill introduced last week as a Democratic plan to step up highway spending sharply.

It carries far larger financing than the acceleration program proposed by President Eisenhower Saturday in his letter to Republican leaders.

The letter said the administration would ask Congress to "suspend certain expenditure limitations for three years" and thus make the extra $2.2 billion available.

THIS WAS TAKEN to mean a suspension of the pay-as-you-go amendment in the 1956 Highway Act, which stated that funds could not be apportioned to the states at a rate faster than they became available in the highway trust fund set up by the act. Total cost estimates have increased since the law was passed in 1956.

Federal highway officials have advised Congress that the pay-as-you-go provision would slow up the highway program.

Gore's bill would provide $12½ billion of new financing over the full span of the program to cover the $40 billion cost and still complete the interstate network in the time originally planned.

It would do this by taking the other federal-aid road systems — the primary, farm-to-market and urban — out of the highway trust fund and financing them from general tax funds at a cost of about $900 million a year.

Council Shuns 500 Conneaut Tax Opponents

CONNEAUT (AP)—A group of about 500 persons, who made an organized protest patterned after the historical Boston Tea Party, filed Monday night to win repeal of a city income tax in this city of 11,000.

Men wore hats of pre-Revolutionary War style and bearing the slogan: "The mid-day ride of Paul Revere." And women donned paper bonnets fashioned after those Puritan women once wore.

Police Chief Jack Sanford ordered a band to stop playing outside the Municipal Building where council met. He also yanked loose a public address system which would have carried council proceedings to the crowd outside City Hall. The people yelled about, some shouting: "Taxation without representation."

Council, however, voted against repealing a municipal income tax of eight-tenths of one per cent which will be effective April 1. The tax was passed as an emergency measure after council's finance committee foresaw a $40,000 deficit in the city's 1958 budget.

From the meeting the protesters marched to the Citizens Banking & Savings Co. on Main St., which was opened so several hundred persons could sign petitions calling for a repeal referendum.

Quake Rattles Isles

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—An earthquake rocked the Ryukyu Islands today, killing two Okinawans and injuring another.

Another 4,000 central government troops were reported ready to follow up the seizure of an island off Sumatra's east coast with a landing at the nearby oil port of Dumai.

In Jakarta, the central government announced capture of the east coast islands of Bengkalis and Tebingtinggi and of Pakning, the American oil terminal facing them near the mouth of the Siak River. The government claimed they were taken with a fight.

The Jakarta government so far had imposed no censorship on outgoing news dispatches but was giving out little information on military operations.

HOWEVER, the central government refused to issue visas to two American newsmen, Greg MacGregor of the New York Times and Harold Martin of the Saturday Evening Post. The refusal was interpreted in Singapore as an effort to keep the number of foreign correspondents in Indonesia to a minimum.

On advice from Jakarta, the American Caltex Oil Co. halted operations at its rich oil field around Paganbaru, inland between Padang and Pakning. The company sent 31 women and children (nine of them Americans) to Singapore, 125 miles east of the invasion area.

About 600 other Americans, including some 120 women and children, are reported in Sumatra. A Caltex spokesman said no further evacuations were scheduled.

The U.S. Navy said the cruiser Bremerton and two destroyers now visiting Singapore would remain in the area and would be available to move Americans out if the State Department requests it.

The Indonesian navy's largest warship, the destroyer Gadjah Mada, and two corvettes fired two shells at Padang Monday and three American-built Mustang fighters dropped bombs. The rebels said ground fire made the fighters miss their target, a bridge.

Early Surgery For Ulcer Cases Urged

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Surgery, says a Mississippi doctor, can save ulcer patients from becoming "gastronomic cripples."

Dr. Lawrence W. Long says many medical schools still recommend surgery for gastric ulcer only if the patient is over 45 and if the ulcer has bled twice.

In contrast, Long would recommend surgery at the outset.

"I think it is time for the surgeon to take the ball from the internist," he said.

"Too often the ulcer patient has been treated protectively by medication, diet and other nonsurgical means. When, over a period of years, this has failed the patient is finally sent to a surgeon."

Use of surgery early in ulcer cases, he said, has become practical because of the great strides the profession has made in general operative techniques. These include the development of antibiotics, the perfection of anesthetics and their administration, and the availability of blood banks.

Long, staff surgeon at the Mississippi Baptist Hospital in Jackson, was here to address the 11th biennial International Congress of the International College of Surgeons. He said surgery for ulcers has reduced deaths from stomach cancer because of early detection.

Family Unaware Of Sorrow Ahead

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Carmelia Pasut crossed an ocean to sorrow Monday, but no one had the heart to tell her.

Throughout an eight-day passage from Genoa, the 29-year-old immigrant told her children, Alessandro, 9, and Liliana, 7, that they would soon be in a new home in Canada with their father.

Mrs. Pasut recognized no one in the crowd waiting on a pier when the American Export liner Constitution docked. She scanned faces, expecting her husband to meet her, but he wasn't there.

Luigi Pasut, 43, died a week ago today in Oakville, Ont.

He Sets Example?

HAMMONTON, N. J. (AP)—Joan DeCesare Jr., Johnston, R. I., paid a $20 fine and $5 in costs after state police said he drove 70 miles per hour in a 50-mile zone. He was on his way to a traffic safety conference.

Pakistan Tells SEATO Aid Needed To Fight Communism

MANILA (AP)—Pakistan rocked the opening session of SEATO for foreign ministers today with a sharp demand for more economic aid to counter tantalizing Communist offers.

Secretary of State Dulles announced that the United States has set aside $2 million to train skilled technicians in the SEATO area. Australian Foreign Minister R. G. Casey offered $2½ million in aid for the alliance's three Asian members.

Bids for more aid to Asia were also made by France and the Philippines, but proposals for any major expansion of present programs faced a cool reception from the United States. Dulles reportedly feels this isn't the time to expand SEATO.

Dulles introduced a resolution, quickly approved by the members, providing for exchange of information between SEATO, NATO and the Baghdad Pact. Such an exchange is a pet project of the Philippines, which has been urging a linkup of the three anti-Communist alliances.

DULLES SAID the exchange would include information on economic problems in each area, attendance of soldiers from other areas at SEATO military exercises and of representatives at civil activities of the pact.

Philippine Foreign Minister Felixberto Serrano, chairman of the conference, also proposed that SEATO members explore specific economic projects that could be developed multilaterally by members states and investigate the feasibility of a meeting of SEATO member finance ministers to develop greater economic collaboration.

Pakistan's Commerce Minister N. M. A. Qizilbash shook up the opening session with his warnings about Communist aid offers. He intimated that Asian members of SEATO had not been rewarded for siding with the West, while "neutral nations" such as India are receiving aid from both camps.

In apparent reply, Dulles said the United States had poured more than $500 million in nonmilitary aid into economies of the three Asian members in the four years since SEATO was formed.

Bank Porter Takes Emergency Deposit

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A sign on the night depository chute of a branch of the Lincoln Bank & Trust Co. read "Out of Order; leave deposit with porter."

Three after-hours depositors followed the instructions.

The porter, Oliver Guest, 31, put up the sign.

Birth Announcement Accepted by Taxman

Ohio Finance Chief Issues Warning To All Departments To Cut Spending

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Just how far the state will need to economize to live within its income was anyone's guess today.

The word has gone out to all state departments to pare their expenses so the state can keep within its income, which is falling.

Workers in the state finance director's office have begun discussions with practically all major departments on expense cutting.

But neither the finance director, John Skipton, nor department directors will discuss exact dollars and cents cuts that Skipton has worked out as being necessary.

"I feel a strong obligation not to be gloomy," says Skipton. "The picture could change from day to day."

He referred to the current recession which has resulted in an 11 per cent drop in state sales tax collections. That tax supplies most of the state's operating monies.

However, it was learned that several departments have challenged successfully some of Skipton's figures.

Ike's Tax Cut Decision Due for Month's Delay

Labor Chief Raps Both Dems, GOP

WASHINGTON (AP)—Organized labor's top leader today accused both Republicans and Democrats of doing too little to halt mounting unemployment. He called for fast action to avoid economic chaos.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, demanded a quick tax cut, increased jobless benefits, more defense spending and more money for such public works construction as schools, roads and hospitals.

In remarks prepared for 1,000 AFL-CIO leaders gathered here to push for congressional action, Meany predicted that a new government report on employment for February, due today, would show 5¼ million persons unemployed, up 750,000 from January.

"That's more than all the people in the states of Wyoming, Vermont, Utah, South Dakota, Rhode Island, North Dakota, New Mexico, New Hampshire and Nevada altogether," he said.

ADD TO THAT total the idle time of more than three million workers he said are now employed only three and four days a week, Meany added, and it's the equivalent of another 1,300,000 unemployed.

He called for action from both the administration and Congress, saying: "The administration is to blame because it has done too little until it's almost too late, because it has sought to hide the truth behind a face of political cheerfulness. But the people on Capitol Hill must share the blame too. Congress need not have waited for administration leadership."

"Do not be misled by the political soothsayers and spellbinders from either side."

"The Democrats know they can make political capital out of talking about the recession and doing little about it. The Republicans hope to protect themselves by hiding the fact that, during a Republican administration, the economy has become dangerously sick."

"This is not the time to indulge ourselves in partisan name-calling. Now is the time for all of us, no matter what our political preferences, to close ranks and do something done."

"That means abandonment of some of the administration's favorite and now thoroughly disproven economic theories. That means that for the good of the country, the Democrats are going to have to put political capital to one side and do something."

Youth Snoozes On During Wild Ride

COLUMBIA, Tenn. (AP)—Wiley Fought, 19, was asleep in a car when it went out of control on a curve and threw out its driver, James Ivie, Summertown.

The auto knocked down a mailbox and guard rails, sealed an embankment and knocked down a church sign. Then it swooped back down the bank and across the highway into the front yard of the George Crews residence and smashed into the living room. Inside was Fought—unhurt and still asleep.

Commenting on circumstances of the girl's marriage, Sears asked: "Did not her act endanger her morals and those of other children in Crawford County?"

Donald J. Lett of Mansfield, counsel for the parents, asserted that no crime was committed.

"I cannot find where the parents of a child, who is a ward of the juvenile court, cannot consent to her marriage," Lett said.

The court gave no indication when it would rule on the case.

Plant Boss Jailed; 65 Seeking Assist

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—Sixty-five employees of American Tool Co., out of a job because their boss has gone to prison for income tax evasion, are hoping they can go back to work.

Rep. Johansen (R-Mich.) said he expected to receive approval today from U.S. Dist. Atty. Wendell Miles of Grand Rapids, Mich., to resume operations at the plant.

The plant, which made precision parts under defense contracts, was shut down Thursday by the Internal Revenue Service after the owner, Alex Pinto, was sentenced to prison on conviction of income tax evasion.

Persons who leave the department until the payroll level reaches that of the Dec. 1-15 pay period.

Maintenance and repairs will be made at the same rate they were during the last half of last year and only half of the year's $1,112,000 appropriation for equipment will be spent. That point nearly has been reached now.

Dr. Haines said there will be no reductions in amounts for food, fuel, drugs and clothing needed to care for the state's 47,000 wards in mental and correctional institutions.

If the six-million-dollar saving is achieved, the department will spend three millions more this fiscal year than it was allotted for the preceding year. Dr. Haines

Big Winter Wheat Crop Is Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prospects for a big crop of winter wheat continued favorable, the Agriculture Department says.

In a crop outlook report issued late Monday, the department said wheat in the important producing areas of the Great Plains continues in excellent condition. This is in sharp contrast to several other recent seasons when drought plagued both the crop and the southern Great Plains.

"Soil moisture, although now excessive in much of the South and East as well as some Pacific sections, is plentifully stored throughout the great farming area which weighs heavily in crop output," the report said.

In the Great Plains, many farmers were said to see standstill yield possibilities for their wheat.

The department emphasized, however, that many hazards remain before harvest time.

Milk production in February continued its long upturn. Output was reported at 9,482,000,000 pounds, or about one-half of 1 per cent above February last year and 12 per cent above the 10-year February average.

City Council To Meet Wednesday Morning

The regular meeting of the Washington C. H. Council will be held at 10:30 a. m. instead of 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, because some of the councilmen have said they would be unable to attend the meeting if it is held in the evening.

Ben F. Norris, president of council, explained in announcing the change of the meeting time from night to morning Wednesday that several of the councilmen are members of the Lions Club Minstrel cast, which has a dress rehearsal Wednesday night and that another had notified him that he will be out of the city in the evening.

The agenda for the meeting, Norris said, is made up mostly of routine matters.

However, he said, his own resignation from the Zoning Board of Appeals probably will be taken up.

Norris submitted his resignation from the board, saying he felt that, as a real estate broker, he was frequently too closely connected with problems that come before the board to do a good job.

A technical question may come up in connection with his resignation—if the Zoning Board code provides that the president of Council be one of its members along with the city manager.

Aide Says Slash Is 'Next Step'

Labor Secretary Finds Unemployment Climbs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican congressional leaders said today President Eisenhower has decided to wait at least a month before determining whether to recommend any cut in taxes.

Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, the House GOP leader, said Republicans attending a White House meeting with Eisenhower voiced no opposition to that decision.

The congressional group met with Eisenhower to discuss means of bolstering the nation's economy as Secretary of Labor Mitchell was announcing that unemployment climbed to around 5,200,000 in mid-February—an increase of about 700,000 over January.

Mitchell said tax reduction would be "the next big step" if business does not pick up.

He called for government action to buy the sagging economy, but cautioned against "ill-advised action."

Mitchell said it was too easy to recommend "broad and far-reaching money spending" that would not provide jobs needed right now.

"The program must fit the need and must be designed with the need clearly in mind," he said.

He said that in event the business downturn proves more stubborn than anticipated, an administrative recommendation for a tax cut will be made.

HE SAID IT would be "a major and substantial cut in personal and business taxes."

Mitchell disclosed that Eisenhower had said that "I assure you that I shall continue to take, or propose to Congress, such steps as can contribute effectively to the health of the economy and the welfare of our people."

Mitchell said that with 5,200,000 jobless there were 62 million still with jobs. He said the main joblessness was in factory employment and that was the key to the economic trouble.

Mitchell echoed comments made Monday by Vice President Nixon on preferring a tax reduction to massive public works spending.

Nixon made it clear he still believes the economy will respond to a speedup in spending on public works for which Congress already has provided funds, as Eisenhower outlined Saturday.

But he said that if employment, retail sales, steel production and other indices fail to show an upturn in the next few weeks "the next big step" ought to be a tax cut that would spur consumer purchasing power and put more money in the hands of corporations and investors to stimulate job-producing projects.

POSSIBILITY of a tax cut came up today at Eisenhower's regular weekly meeting with congressional GOP leaders. Reporting on the discussion while the session still was going on, Sens. Martin of Pennsylvania and Francis Case of South Dakota made it clear the WHISKEYTOWN, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Agnes Rogers, 38, tried to help coax a big German shepherd dog from a station wagon.

Mrs. Rogers fell against the automatic transmission shift lever pushing it from park to reverse.

The dog slammed a paw down on the accelerator.

The car zoomed back. Mrs. Rogers was thrown out the open front door. A wheel ran over her.

The car hit a fence and stopped. The dog disappeared.

Cleveland Educator Seeks High Pay Scale

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland's school superintendent, Mark C. Schinnerer, who is trying to sign up 200 new teachers for next fall, told the Board of Education Monday: "Why, they won't even talk to us at $4,000."

Schinnerer asked the board to "give us a break in the market" by raising the minimum salary from $4,000 to $4,500. He mentioned that in suburban Lakewood the starting salary is $4,200 and Detroit pays $4,500 to beginners with bachelor's degrees

Court Docket Increased by 4

19 New Cases Filed
While 15 Disposed of

The number of cases docketed in Common Pleas Court here crept up from 98 at the beginning of February to 102 at the end, despite the fact that 15 were disposed of during the month, court records show.

Nineteen new cases were filed while the 15 were being disposed of, thus pushing up the total.

The increase was confined to criminal and general civil cases, however, the records show, with the backlog of domestic relations cases being cut from 47 to 42.

Cases pending at the beginning of the month included 47 domestic relations cases, 41 other civil suits and 10 criminal cases. During the month, four new domestic relations cases, 14 other civil suits and one criminal case were filed. The grand total — or the theoretical "high for the month" — thus had 51 domestic relations cases, 55 other civil suits, 11 criminal cases, and a total of 117 cases of all sorts on the docket.

NO CRIMINAL cases were disposed of during the month. However, six general civil suits and nine domestic relations cases were disposed of from the docket. The totals for the end of the month, thus, show a pending load of 42 domestic relations cases, 49 general civil suits and 11 criminal cases.

Six of the domestic relations cases closed were tried by the court and three were settled and dismissed.

One general civil case was tried by the court, three were closed with cognovit and default judgments and two were settled and dismissed. There were no jury trials during the month.

While the Common Pleas Court kept busy, the second district court of appeals moved neither forward or backward in its work with Fayette County.

There were 12 cases from Fayette County pending in the court at the first of the month. There were none filed during the month and none was disposed of. There were 12 cases from Fayette County pending in the court at the end of the month.

Ohio Finance

said net result of the economies will mean the department will not be able to move ahead as quickly as he wants it to.

Skipston said he would not disclose any of the exact amounts he thinks can be cut from department budgets.

He said he is asking department heads to think in terms of operating budgets containing 10, 15 and 20 per cent reductions over present expenses. "But none of that would be across the board," he added. "We're taking steps to assure that we stay in good financial condition no matter how the economy goes."

Essential department functions should continue as planned, Skipston believes.

"We're relying on the department heads to make individual determinations of what is essential," he added.

One department director said Skipston appeared more interested in the total amount of a cut that can be made than in how it is accomplished.

Some departments have begun economizing already. One plans to retire older automobiles it uses and not replace them. Persons driving state cars less than 1,000 miles a week will use their own cars.

Another department is having division chiefs submit strong justification or every item it wants purchased or new personnel it wants added.

U. S. Idle List

idea was meeting with some opposition.

Martin, ranking Republican on the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee, said he is opposed to tax cuts at this time. He added he prefers spending on public works.

Case, second ranking Republican on the Senate Public Works Committee, said that he does not necessarily go along with Nixon on the idea of tax reduction.

Case added, however, that he feels a tax cut could help, for example, people whose income is fixed, including those who receive pensions and annuities.

Robert Merriam, assistant budget director, reports the budget deficit for the year ending June 30 may run $500 million higher than Eisenhower forecast in January, largely due to heavier spending to combat the recession.

Secretary of Defense McElroy announced also he will ask at least $1.3 billion more than Eisenhower's original $39.1 billion budget request for military spending next year.

Nixon said he expects gains in both business and employment in the near future, but added that if the recession continues, he prefers to "go down the tax-cutting road rather than the spending road" to cure it.

His comment apparently surprised Senators Knowland (Calif.), the Senate Republican leader, and Bridges (N.H.), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

Knowland said he regards a tax reduction as "one of the alternatives that should be considered if by summer there is no upturn."

Bridges said he is keeping an open mind on the question.

"A tax cut would be one way to approach the situation but I am not committed to one at this time," he said.

Democrats made it clear they regarded Nixon's announcement as a move aimed at cutting across their plans to force an immediate increase in spending. Democrats, too, have tax reduction plans in reserve, awaiting a "go" signal from House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.).

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said, "We may need a tax cut combined with public works to do the trick."

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.), a member of the Senate Finance Committee, said a tax cut isn't going to help the unemployed who will owe no taxes.

Chairman Byrd (D-Va.) of the Finance Committee said that while he wouldn't oppose a sound tax cut, he believes one now would bring on a $10 billion deficit.

"Then we would have the kind of inflation that would hurt the little man more in the long run than if his taxes had not been reduced," Byrd said.

Break-in Charge Is Dismissed

Greenfield Youth
Found Not Involved

A charge of breaking and entering against Sam Gaffin, 19, of Greenfield, arrested by the Fayette County sheriff last week, was dropped Tuesday morning at the request of County Prosecutor Rollo Marchant.

He was indicted by the January grand jury and the indictment was dismissed by Judge John P. Case at the request of the prosecutor.

Marchant said evidence bears out Gaffin's story that he was only along for the ride last Dec. 26 when three Greenfield youths, now serving time for burglary, broke into the Lucas & Son Market, Route 22, east.

Questioned at the Mansfield Reformatory Monday, George Mootispaw, 20, and Raymond Hurler, 19, admitted that Gaffin stayed in the car while they broke into the market. Indicted by the January grand jury, the three pleaded guilty to burglary charges filed in connection with the break-in.

Another Greenfield youth, 15 years old, tipped, Sheriff Orlando Hays about the break-in after the group returned to Greenfield. He, too, took no part in the affair. He was never charged.

Meeting Set To Discuss Phone Service

Answers to some questions regarding the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. request for a rate increase and changes in service to rural and village subscribers will be sought at a meeting at 8 p. m. Thursday in the Farm Bureau auditorium.

Paul Dougherty, commercial manager of the Ohio Bell Co., here will be at the meeting to explain the proposed rate structure and changes in service, it was said.

The meeting was set up by the legislative committee of the Farm Bureau, but it has been made plain that it is for the general public and not limited to members of the Farm Bureau.

Edwin Buck, committee chairman, will preside.

A SPOKESMAN for the committee said "the purpose of the meeting is to learn more about the company's requests for increased rates and service changes."

In making plans for the meeting, he continued, "the committee felt . . . the farmers should get their questions answered directly by someone who knows the answers. Many phases of this service are misunderstood and we hope the farmers will come and hear this discussion."

The committee spokesman also commented that "a number of farmers have said they will be at the meeting prepared to ask some questions, among them company plans to decrease the number of subscribers on party lines and exchange-wide free service."

4 Forfeit Bonds And One Fined

Four drivers forfeited bonds and another pleaded guilty of traffic violations at Tuesday morning's session of Municipal Court.

Acting Judge William A. Lovell was on the bench in the absence of Judge Max G. Dice.

Forfeiting were:
Harold Eugene Turner, 22, of 418 Gibbs Ave., $30 for speeding;
Ralph Hickman, 719 Dayton Ave., $20 for speeding;

Wilbur Kaiser, 34, of Cleveland, $20 for speeding;
Richard Young, age and address not given, $25 for crossing yellow line.

Ronald A. Kelley, 25, of 1025 Dayton Ave., pleaded guilty to speeding and was fined $25 and costs.

Damage Moderate In Two Car Mishap

Police investigated another fender-bender about 7 p. m. Monday at the intersection of Court and North Sts. Only moderate damage to the two autos involved was reported.

David B. Lytle, 19, of Bainbridge was turning left onto North St. from E. Court St. when his vehicle collided with one driven by Charles M. Long, 31, 315 McLean St., who was moving west, police said.

No arrest was made.

Easter Seal Campaign Gets Under Way Here

Facing the fact that the treasury of the Fayette County Crippled Children's Society is at its lowest point in many years, a actually nearly completely out of funds, the efforts of the organization are being redoubled this year to meet the need for helping deserving children in Fayette County.

The little publicized work of this organization occupies an important place in welfare work in this community and its officials are now appealing for a greater response than ever before in contributions for the present Easter Seal campaign just starting. The goal this year is $2,500.

Approximately 6,000 letters have just gone into the mails through the efforts of the Easter Seal committee, headed by Mrs. Dwight Coffman. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Robert Klevner; Mrs. Merrill Lynch; Mrs. Ray Baker; Mrs. John D. Williams; Mrs. Emery Lynch; Mrs. Fulton Alkire; Mrs. Frank Reno; Mrs. Sheldon Grubb; Mrs. Norris Highfield; Mrs. William Clarke; Mrs. Clifford Dunnagan; Mrs. William Fletcher; Mrs. George Naylor; Mrs. Kenneth Warner; Mrs. Harry Naylor; Mrs. William Lawyer; Mrs. Ed. Moser; Mrs. Scott Harner; Mrs. Max Wilson; Mrs. William Melvin and Miss Gretchen Darlington.

THIS COMMITTEE was assisted by the officers of the organization in mailing the letters. They are Mrs. Harmon Welty, president; Mrs. O. L. Ohnstad, vice-president; Mrs. Richard Wood, secretary and Harold McLean, treasurer.

The county organization is affiliated with the Ohio Society for Crippled Children, Inc., but the greater part of the funds collected from the public are kept in the local treasury to pay costs of helping needy crippled children to walk, talk and live like other children.

The organization's letter just mailed into nearly 6,000 homes also makes this appeal:

"If you know of a crippled child or adult who needs Easter Seal services, please let us hear from you. And use the Easter Seal. . . they remind others of the need to help crippled children."

Advisors for the year are Mrs. Norman Armbrust, Mrs. Charles Ellis and Mrs. Robert Pero.

Next meeting will be held March 10 at the Staunton School building.

Industrial Stocks Show New Gains

NEW YORK (AP) — Industrial made further gains as the stock market continued to advance in moderate trading early this afternoon.

Key issues were ahead fractions to about a point. Selected stocks made wider gains.

Oils, aircrafts, chemicals, steels and most motors were on the upside. Ralls were narrowly ahead on average. Rubbers were off a bit. Farm implements and coppers were mixed. Airlines showed little change.

The market was pursuing an upward course that has been in progress more than a week.

Sentiment was bolstered further by Vice President Nixon's favoring of a tax cut as the next big step to fight the business slump. A similar step was recommended by Labor Secretary Mitchell after reporting that unemployment jumped to about 5,200,000 in mid-February.

Lukens Steel and Lorillard were up about two points each. DuPont rose two points. Youngstown Sheet rose about a point. Chrysler picked up a big fraction. General Motors improved slightly.

Illinois Central, American Telephone, Union Carbide, Caterpillar and American Tobacco rose.

U. S. government bonds drifted downward.

Swedish Princess Delays Betrothal

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Robin Douglas-Home, the British aristocrat who came to Sweden seeking permission to marry Princess Margaretha, has left for home after failing to win her hand. But he's going to try again.

Although the engagement had been widely expected, a royal court communiqué said they had decided to postpone it.

His first marriage proposal was rejected by her family because his salary of $126 a week was not considered regal enough to support a princess.

Youngster Is Hurt In School Bus Crash

BARBERTON (AP) — Judy Lavaco, 11, was admitted to Barberton Citizens Hospital Monday following a collision of two buses carrying about 100 pupils of Rose and Highland elementary schools.

Eight other children were treated at the hospital and released. Police said a bus driven by James Barlow of Barberton smashed into the rear of the other vehicle. Barlow was arrested for failure to have his bus under control.

3 Men Are Indicted For Damaging Phones

SANDUSKY (AP)—Three men indicted for damaging equipment of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. during a strike last fall were granted conditional probation for five years Monday by the Erie County common pleas judge, James L. McCrystal.

The three — John G. Wedeman, 22, and Gerald M. Harris, 20, both of Sandusky, and Bruno Sinepoli, of Huron—also were fined $1,000 each.

$85,129 Sought In Damage Suit

Court Action Result
Of Accident in 1956

An $85,129.48 damage suit has been brought in Common Pleas Court here against a Springfield man by a Leesburg youth who claims he has been disabled continuously since a motorcycle-auto accident here two years ago today.

Asking $752.69 for medical expenses and the rest for general damages is Tona Ode, Salyer, 19, in a suit brought by his father, Tonzie Salyer of near Springfield. The suit names Roy Adams of Leesburg as defendant.

Salyer claims he suffered leg and head injuries in the mishap, and that his right leg is two inches shorter than his left as a result.

He accuses Adams of driving under the influence of alcohol, without a license and on the wrong side of the highway at the time of the collision. He claims the car was "carelessly, negligently and recklessly driven."

The mishap occurred on Route 35 north of Washington C. H. about 12:30 p. m. on March 11, 1956. Salyer was southbound on a motorcycle and Adams, in a car, was headed north.

Farmer Training Course Completed

Kurt Coil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Coil of Bloomingburg, has completed the eight-week course in Young Farmer Training in Agriculture at Ohio State University and was one of 42 students who received a certificate from Dean Chester S. Hutchison of the College of Agriculture at a course - end banquet.

Among the subjects covered in the course were feeding farm animals, farm business management, animal breeding, farm machinery, milk production, pasture improvement and forage crops, farm electricity, farm pests and weed control, livestock production and fertilizers and fertility.

A follow-up teaching program at the home farms off the students will be carried on throughout the year by Paul F. Pulse, an instructor in the Department of Agricultural Education.

Continuation of this type of course next winter is planned at the university.

Coil was the only Fayette County student who took the course.

The Small Home Problem of Older People

Homes for older persons, patterned after their needs, is now becoming a demand to an extent that federal government officials have pushed to the fore this consideration by the construction industry.

In the last several years the nation's younger married people, buying and constructing homes to begin housekeeping, have given the economy of the country a tremendous boost.

Now many older people whose children are married and living away from home are pointing to the fact that they need more housing of desirable modern type to meet their smaller requirements and their ability to look after them.

It is now being said that statistics show 68 per cent of families headed by persons of 65 or older, while owning their own homes, actually have more rooms than they need. They are finding it difficult to dispose of their seven to 10 room homes. They are said to represent about 40 per cent of the entire 65 or older age group.

These older people enjoy an increasing share of the national income—and the resources they command are expanding, too. This segment of the nation's population, in another 20 years, is expected to total 22 million persons — or roughly 10 per cent of the 220 million Americans who will be inhabiting the country then.

Florida, among other areas, has recognized the demand among retired folk for smaller living quarters — quarters that will not overburden them financially or otherwise in their leisure years. However many of these oldsters prefer to remain in familiar surroundings in their own localities. They may still be quick to exchange a house that far exceeds their needs for one that would be just as comfortable and less burdensome.

Many sections have institutions where people can go in their later years. Churches, fraternal organizations and other groups operate homes for them. However there is growing need for small private homes. In them men and women are still able to enjoy the freedom and the satisfaction of maintaining their own houses and yards according to their own way of life.

Violinist's Big Need: Heart

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Many a youthful violinist grumbles rebelliously to his parents: "I'll bet Misha Elman doesn't practice as much as I do."

But he's wrong. At 67, Elman, who has no intention of hanging up the fiddle and bow he first clutched in a Russian ghetto at the age of 5, still practices up to three hours daily.

"Some artists, as they get older, lose interest in practicing," he said. "They regard it as drudgery."

"To me it is still a pleasure. Even in practicing you make discoveries, and it is the discoveries that inspire you."

This is the golden jubilee season in America for the small, sturdy wizard of the strings who has a puckish face resembling one of Santa Claus' elves. But he had been a child wonder in Europe for more than five years when he made his debut here as an artist of 17.

Acclaimed as one of the great masters of the violin in this century, Elman has given more than 3,500 concerts. He has a repertoire of more than 600 numbers and enlarges it each year.

"If you cease doing new things," he remarked, "you cease to grow."

More than two million of his records have been sold. Some of the earlier ones, made with tenor Enrico Caruso, with whom he used to tour in joint concerts, are now highly prized by collectors.

All his life he has been unable to indulge in sports for fear of injuring his multi-million-dollar hands. His favorite game: chess. Asked the most important factors in a concert artist's career, Elman grinned and said:

"Well, entrances and exits are important—just as important as they are to an actor."

"Technical skill is important, of course, but the most important thing is heart. The artist's contact with his audience is through his heart. If he has no heart, he has no contact."

"And work is important. People think a person of genius or great talent doesn't have to work. Actually, he has to work harder because he has higher standards and higher ideals to satisfy."

"My definition of talent is: self-criticism."

At 67 Elman still has two great loves—the sound of his Stradivarius, and the voice of his wife who, he says, "has made my life happy."

A Matter of Personalities

By George Sokolsky

Sometimes the mind of President Eisenhower displays itself best in the off-the-cuff remarks he makes at press conferences, because there he is himself without the intervention of James Hagerly, Arthur Larson, Robert Montgomery and others who seem to be bent on doctoring him into being what he is not and never can be.

The following quotation refers to Gen. James M. Gavin who retired from the military service because he desired to tell the truth without being censored. President Eisenhower said of Gen. Gavin:

"... I mean it was the act of a man of a particular personality—and I have no comment whatsoever. If the man wanted to retire, it was his right, period."

Of course, every human being has a particular personality, no two being alike. There are strong men and weak men, tired men and aggressive men—and women too.

What Eisenhower meant probably was that General Gavin has a personality that is displeasing to Eisenhower because it is sharp, it is strong and aggressive; it is self-reliant.

The President prefers a conforming personality, one that salutes his superiors and expects to be saluted by his inferiors. In a word, a personality that knows its place and keeps it.

While that is an orderly procedure in a military organization, in civil life it represents tired, unimaginative people who, having discovered what pays off, avoid what does not pay off. In the struggle for power in the world today, it is significant that all of Europe with the exception of west Germany appears to be fatigued intellectually, no statesmen, except the aged Konrad Adenauer, exhibiting both courage and imagination.

The Russians, who are building a world state, are, as one might say, full of paprika and that is equally true of such people as the Arabs and the Israelis.

But both Europe and the United States are tired and the evidence of fatigue here is the unwillingness of men to engage in controversy, to fight hard for what they believe to be right.

I am sure that Harold Stassen is all wrong about Soviet Russia, but at least he says his say and fights for a forum to say it. What he says seems to me to be immature, idealized nonsense.

Many Things Cause Child To Eat Little

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

DON'T let mealtime at your home become a struggle between you and your children. If you continually have to coax your youngsters to eat, you must determine the reason for their anorexia, or lack of appetite.

If you can't discover the source of the trouble yourself, you should ask your doctor to investigate. Perhaps, lack of a sufficient vitamin supply, especially of vitamin B, may be the cause.

May Be Allergic

Maybe the youngster is allergic to certain foods and just doesn't want to eat them. Sometimes, throat or mouth disorders are responsible. The child won't eat because swallowing produces pain.

Decayed teeth, likewise, might keep a youngster from eating because of the pain produced by chewing.

Anemia might be another factor.

Generally, though, there is a relatively simple explanation for lack of appetite.

In many cases, we find that a child who refuses to eat his dinner does so simply because he eats frequently between meals. He just isn't hungry when dinner-time comes along.

Food Substitutes

Far too often, the food which he substitutes for his regular meals doesn't contain the nutrition he needs.

Constipation sometimes is responsible for a poor appetite. If this seems to be the trouble in the case of your youngster, he might need more outdoor exercise.

Let him go out to play when he gets home from school, or in the morning and afternoon if he isn't old enough for school. Call him in well before mealtime, however, and let him sit down to rest. Never permit him to play so hard that he becomes fatigued.

Over-exertion, especially near meal-time, is bad, because it depresses gastric and intestinal secretions.

Usually, if a child refuses to eat one meal it is better to let him go and not allow him to eat anything until the next meal is due. Keep helpings small. In a few cases, it might be a good idea to reduce the amount of milk or even stop it, but only temporarily.

Now I know I have always urged children—and adults, too—to drink some milk every day. But 32 ounces of milk a day, perhaps even as little as 24 ounces, might for a short while have somewhat of a depressing effect on the appetite.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

M.B.: I have heard that there is usually a warning before a migraine attack. Is this true?

Answer: In the majority of migraine cases, there is a warning of an oncoming attack. The sign may be depression, irritability, restlessness, loss of appetite, spots before the eyes, blindness, numbness and a weakness of one side of the body.

TOLEDO (AP)—State Rep. John J. Connors Jr., is seeking a court injunction to stop Toledo from enforcing a new state law designed to curb debt-pooling services.

Connors challenged the constitutionality of the legislation, declaring that it discriminates against debt poolers.

He asked the injunction on behalf of Beneficial Budget Systems, Inc., of Toledo. Common Pleas Judge Geraldine Macelwane set a hearing for Friday.

Debt-pooling concerns consolidate obligations of a debtor and, for a fee, will pay the obligations off proportionately as the debtor makes monthly contributions.

Noted Britons Beating Path To Fleur Meyer's Salons

LONDON (AP) — In precisely two years, Fleur Cowles Meyer, an American, has become the best salon-keeper in London.

"A salon," says the dictionary, "is a reception, especially one at which celebrities gather, hence a fashionable assemblage."

Mrs. Meyer's Wednesday soirées, held in an elegant set of chambers once occupied, perhaps appropriately, by the dandy Beau Brummell, attract a glittering list of people.

Her residence—you could never describe it as a mere apartment—is located in Albany, a series of exclusive flats near Piccadilly Circus, at the foot of Saville Row.

Whether to call it Albany, or

THE Albany, has troubled Englishmen for years. But not Mrs. Meyer.

"It's Albany, not THE Albany," she said.

And then, in a pronouncement that may become a classic in London, she added:

"You don't say THE Buckingham Palace, do you?"

Whatever her town house is called her guests include such disimilar but interesting persons as:

Britain's recently resigned Chancellor of the Exchequer, Peter Thorneycroft, Laborite leader Hugh Gaitskill, actor Peter Ustinov, barrister Sir Hartley Shawcross, actress Flora Robson, fashion designer Hardy Amies, newspaper publisher Lord Kemsley and dancer Dame Margot Fonteyn.

Mrs. Meyer, the former wife of American publisher Gardner Cowles, married Englishman Tom ontague Meyer in November of 1955.

It was a quiet ceremony in a residence Beverly Hills mansion with actor Cary Grant the best man. From California, the Meyers returned to Britain.

Meyer (pronounced Mayer) is a big international operator in timber. He is short, well tailored and as handsome and suave as his best man, Grant.

He also adores his wife and when she said she wanted to live at Albany, he gave her the green light and, obviously, the money to tailor it to her heart's desire.

Albany has been a center of art, letters, laughter and wit for many years. Its past tenants include Lord Byron, Lord Melbourne, Queen Victoria's first prime minister, and Oscar Wilde, who set part of his play, "The Importance of Being Earnest," in an Albany flat.

By January 1956 Mrs. Meyer had redecorated, installed fancy plumbing and equipped the place with central heating. As she got her soirees into high gear two years ago she was being described by London newspapers as beautiful, flamboyant, clever, witty and talented.

A society columnist wrote:

"Her salon has become the most envied party in town."

She invites her guests for 6:30 p. m. and sets no curfew. Many of her friends are members of the British government, members of Parliament or theatrical people.

In her lovely drawing room, there is food and drink aplenty but the emphasis is on conversation.

"I don't care for the formal dinner party," said Mrs. Meyer. "One has to talk to people on either side. There are more interruptions than conversation."

Up until midnight her guests come and go in waves.

"I'm sorry I'm late," Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd will say, "but there was a vote in the House."

"Of course," Fleur will beam.

Fleur maintains one rule for her salon:

"I only ask people I like."

She and her husband preside at the soirees without ever seeming to do so and the service is so good that cocktails and food from a French chef in the kitchen appear as if by magic.

People . . . Places . . . and Things

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

A 95-year-old barn, which has withstood three tornadoes that tore away part of the roof and did other damage, stands with the white-oak frame work just as solid as ever, on the former Dwight Goens farm, recently purchased by Dr. Joseph M. Herbert, a short distance east of Good Hope.

The barn was built by Joseph McCoy, grandfather of Dwight who was assisted by Lindsey Cash, former well known resident of Washington C. H.

Cash helped hew the white-oak logs from which the framework was built, and apparently a broad-ax was used in the process for the frame timbers are remarkably smooth.

The framework is not only pinned together with wooden pins, but is mortised together, and carefully braced to keep the main timbers upright.

Most of the framework is 8 by 10 inches, and part of it is smaller. The sills are heavier than the remainder of the frame.

No woodborers or other insects, or decay have attacked the white-oak, and the entire frame appears to be a "solid as iron."

The first damage done to the barn by a windstorm was the night of September 8, 1885 when the tail end of the cyclone which wrecked part of Washington C. H. whipped across southern Fayette County and tore away part of the roof of the barn.

Two successive windstorms blew away part of the roof and some of the siding, but the strong white-oak frame withstood them all without any indications of damage.

While I was inspecting the barn, Dwight, who is soon returning to his home near Traverse City, Michigan, turned over to me quite a number of articles to be placed in the forthcoming Fayette County Museum, and they are now in storage in the former "carriage house" back of the museum building.

One of these articles was a seven-foot cross-cut saw of very early make, and with teeth much different from the later models.

LITTLE CORN FOR SALE

For many weeks there has been comparatively little corn offered for sale by the growers on Fayette County's farms, although quite a number of hog feeders are in the market for corn.

Reports indicate there is also less livestock being offered at public sales than at any time in recent years.

Demand for corn is increasing as many farmers are feeding the last of their own crop. I am informed by some of the farmers.

MUD FOR MORTAR

There being no sand and lime or cement available when first houses were built in Fayette County, the builders used the next best thing available—just common clay mixed into a mortar, and used to "daub" the chinks between the logs forming the walls of the houses.

When straw was available, it was mixed with the clay mortar, and this helped hold the improvised mortar together and prevent it being washed away by rains that beat against the sides of the houses, causing muddy water to run down the sides.

Usually when logs, either entire, split or a cown, were used for building houses, there was much space left between them. These "chinks" were first filled with split sections of timber which were securely wedged into the openings between the logs. Then the clay mortar was applied to fill completely the space between the split timber and logs.

In this way the buildings were made wind and weather-proof—as long as the clay mortar lasted, which usually was for many years. When necessary, it was replaced with more puddled clay.

White man was not the first one in this area to utilize puddled clay. I have seen puddled clay crematory basins in mounds that were erected 1,000 years before white man set foot in this community.

Likewise the Indian mound builders placed puddled clay about heavy posts erected in the floor of the mounds, and I have seen the holes in the earthen floors of these mounds where the posts had entirely vanished, but the imprint of bark and knots in the clay about the edges of the holes remained in almost perfect condition.

FIRST TRUCK IN CITY

S. A. Pyley and Son, Arthur, owned the first commercial truck in Washington C. H., I am informed by Arthur, who states that within a year or two afterward Dahl-Millikan Wholesale Co. purchased two trucks for use in delivering groceries, etc.

The Pyley truck was purchased the same year the large storage warehouse (now the Thompson Transfer Co. warehouse) was erected on Hinde St. north of the former Fayette Canning Co. plant, in 1906.

At the time Pyley and Son were doing a general transfer, moving and storage business. The truck they purchased, was remodeled with a suitable top. It was a Kelley-Springfield which weighed 9,000 pounds empty.

Arthur recalls that his truck, with a load, and a 7,500 pound truck of the Dahl-Millikan Co. passed in the double-covered bridge over North Fork of Paint Creek, on Route 22, west of New Holland, and the heavy load caused the timbers to creak under the great strain.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD.

Britons Battling Against Lamppost

BUSHEY HEATH, England (AP)—A. E. Matthews, 88-year-old dean of the British stage, has vowed a fight to the finish against an attempt to erect a concrete lamppost in front of his cottage.

"If the workmen come back they will find me mounting guard on that hole with my blunderbuss. Where the hell is that damned blunderbuss, anyway? I know I had one once—remember using it on an income tax man," he said.

"Old Matty," as he is known to British showgoers, declared war on the village council when workmen dug a hole for the lamppost in front of his 300-year-old Queen Anne cottage.

Fashionable women in colonial America protected their complexions from the sun and wind by wearing masks, silk ones in the summer and velvet ones in the winter.

AAUW Officers Elected Monday

Election of officers was the highlight of the American Assn. of University Women meeting held in the home of Mrs. Max Morrow in Jeffersonville Monday night.

Mrs. William Smith conducted the election which resulted in Mrs. Frank Mayo being named president, Mrs. Jane McCoy Gardner, vice president; Mrs. Charles Pensyl, recording secretary; Mrs. Nell Paul, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Walter Seifried, treasurer. These officers will be installed at the July meeting.

Mrs. Mayo as outgoing vice president, conducted a portion of the business session in the absence of the outgoing president, Mrs. Colin Campbell.

Mrs. Guy Briggs, program chairman, used as her topic "Mental Health in Advanced Age." Mrs. Briggs gave a very interesting talk on the topic. She also introduced and summarized a film shown entitled "The Steps of Age," which pertained to the program topic.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess committee which included Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Seifried, Mrs. Briggs and Miss Edna Thompson.

White Oak MYF Plans Program

Members of the White Oak Grove Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship voted to make favors for the hospital trays for Easter when they met in the home of Mrs. Lewis Smith in Greenfield Monday night.

Mrs. Elza Woodruff, vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Carey Daugherty. Mrs. Smith gave the secretary's and treasurer's reports.

It was announced that Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. David Deppner will attend the leader training meeting on refinishing of furniture to be held in the Farm Bureau auditorium on March 18.

As the work project for the evening, members made purses under the guidance of Mrs. T. N. Willis and Mrs. Woodruff.

Tempting refreshments were served by Mrs. Smith.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Willis on March 24. This will be a special meeting during which the group will complete hat construction.

Hospitals Open Drive
CINCINNATI (AP)—The Ohio Hospital Assn. kicks off its annual convention with allied groups here today. It aims to get across newest management techniques to 2,500 hospital administrators.

Mrs. Wilson Hostess To Staunton WSCS

A playlet, pertaining to missionary work, highlighted the March meeting of the Staunton Methodist Church Women's Society for Christian Service which was held in the home of Mrs. Harold Wilson.

The playlet was presented by Mrs. Oscar Wilson, program leader, and Mrs. Harold Wilson. A piano solo was presented by Mrs. Herbert Perrill.

Devotions, led by Mrs. Ora Marshall, included Scripture reading, group singing of hymns, prayer and a poem read by Miss Blanche Roberts.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given by Mrs. Bill Haines and Mrs. Oscar Wilson. The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Harold Wilson.

Delicious refreshments were served to 18 members and six guests by Mrs. Wilson, assisted by Mrs. Carl Self.

Guests were Mrs. Rueben Pierce, the Misses Claudia Haines, Pamela Palmer, Seiglinda and Brenda Wilson and Rhonda Wilson.

HD Club Meets In Smith Home

Members of the Washington Home Makers Home Demonstration Club completed the evaluation report on costume spice when they met in the home of Mrs. Lewis Smith in Greenfield Monday night.

Mrs. Elza Woodruff, vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Carey Daugherty. Mrs. Smith gave the secretary's and treasurer's reports.

It was announced that Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. David Deppner will attend the leader training meeting on refinishing of furniture to be held in the Farm Bureau auditorium on March 18.

As the work project for the evening, members made purses under the guidance of Mrs. T. N. Willis and Mrs. Woodruff.

Tempting refreshments were served by Mrs. Smith.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Willis on March 24. This will be a special meeting during which the group will complete hat construction.

Ladies Night Held by Washington Shrine Club In Country Club

A most delightful evening was spent at the Country Club Monday night by Washington C. H. Shrine Club members and their ladies. Approximately 115 Shriners and guests were at the annual ladies night dinner.

The potpourri of Aladdin Temple, Columbus, Ralph O. Shirkey, and his divan were among the several distinguished guests.

During his remarks, he commended Mr. Robert Frizzell, president, on the outstanding Shrine Club Washington C. H. now has. Mr. Frizzell is the only member who holds the gold medal award in Shrinehood for having obtained 10 candidates for the Shrine.

A social hour was held preceding the delicious family style chicken dinner, during which red rose corsages were presented to the women.

Mr. Frizzell welcomed the members and guests, introduced his officers for the year and made several announcements. He stated that the Shrine Circus will be held in Columbus on April 9 and any extra tickets held by the members should be turned in to Dana Hyer or Lawrence Grim as soon as possible. These men are planning to take the Fayette County Children's Home to the Circus.

The next meeting will be held on April 24 in the Hotel Washington Coffee Shop with Richard Rankin as speaker. Mr. Frizzell stressed the importance of all members attending the meetings.
A musical program was presented by the potentate's divan and was greatly enjoyed by all. Dancing concluded the evening's festivities.

Committees for the evening were Austin Wise of Greenfield, entertainment; Gene Mark, decorations; and Lawrence Grim, C. W. Mustine, Richard Kirkpatrick and Colin Campbell, reception.
Guests were Mr. A. J. Tanahill of Mt. Sterling and Mr. and Mrs. George Van Gilden of Columbus. Mr. Van Gilden is a 33rd degree Mason.

This year, over 260,000 outstanding seniors from over 14,000 high schools entered the competition which began with a nation-wide screening examination last October. About 7,200 students, who have already been named, are now in the finals of the current competition. Over 1,000 four-year Merit Scholarships worth an estimated $5 million to the winners and their colleges will be awarded about May 1.

NMSC was established in 1955 through grants of $20.5 million from the Ford Foundation and Carnegie Corporation of New York. Over 80 business and industrial firms offer four-year college scholarships through its facilities.

Chamber Says School Aid Costly to Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio would contribute $1,440,000 more than it gets back under the administration's proposed school aid program, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce estimates.

The chamber said it arrived at the figure by comparing school aid allotments against the estimated amount of federal tax Ohio would pay for the program.
Under the school aid bill, federal money would be allotted on the basis of school population.

NCAA Tourneys Due To Start In 4 Cities

Weekend Regional Tests Expected To Be Higher Caliber

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The basketball season in New York, Evanston, Ill., Stillwater, Okla., and Shreveport, La., tonight as the NCAA Tournament begins its preliminary shapeup for four high-powered weekend regionals.

Such powers as West Virginia, today voted to the regular season national championship in the final Associated Press poll, Maryland, Notre Dame and Oklahoma State are scheduled in a seven-game program that includes the Arkansas-Southern Methodist playoff at Shreveport for the Southwest Conference title.

West Virginia, stung by the loss of backcourt star Don Vincent, plays Manhattan College as part of a triple-header at Madison Square Garden, Maryland, No. 6 nationally, meets Boston College and Dartmouth is paired with Connecticut. The three New York winners join Temple in the Eastern regionals at Charlotte, N.C., Friday and Saturday.

Notre Dame plays Tennessee Tech's Ohio Valley Conference champs, and Pitt, led by All America Don Hennon, goes against Mid-American champion Miami (Ohio) at Evanston. The two winners join Kentucky's Southeastern Conference kings and Big Ten champion Indiana in the Midwest regional at Lexington, Ky., Friday and Saturday.

At Stillwater, Oklahoma State plays Loyola of New Orleans for a berth along with the Southwest Conference champ, Kansas State of the Big Eight, and Cincinnati of the Missouri Valley Conference at Friday's Midwest regional in Lawrence, Kan.

The complete lineup for the Far West regional at San Francisco, also Friday and Saturday, will be decided by preliminary eliminations in Berkeley, Calif., Wednesday night. That one pairs Wyoming's Skyline champs with Seattle, and the Border and Rocky Mountain champions, Arizona State of Tempe and Idaho State, with the winners joining San Francisco's Dons and California at San Francisco. Cal won the Pacific Coast Conference Monday night, defeating Oregon State 57-45 in a play-off game.

The NAIA clambake conducts the second half of its 16-game first round today and tonight in Kansas City, following up opening day victories by Platteville (Wis.), Indiana (Pa.), West Virginia Wesleyan, Pacific Lutheran, Coe (Iowa), Tennessee State, Drury (Mo.), and Pasadena (Calif.).

The NCAA's small college group, which held its regional play last week, resumes Wednesday with quarter-finals at Evansville, Ind.

The 12-team National Invitation Tournament opens at Madison Square Garden Thursday. Seattle, warming up for its round NCAA test, ended its regular season with an 80-74 whipping of Bradley's defending NIT champions Monday night but the Chieftans' Elgin Baylor lost ground in the individual scoring race.

Baylor hit for 27 points, leaving him with a 33.67 average to 34.58 for Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson.

An oyster attaches its valve to a rock or some other object on the sea bottom and remains there for the rest of its life.

Robin Roberts Knows that It 'Is Up to Me'

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Before the visitor sat down in the Phillies' dugout, Robin Roberts joked, "Well, I've got a double knucker this year."

This proud man who was the ace of the Philadelphia club for so many years knew what was coming. Everybody wants to know the same thing.

Are you going to change your style? Do you have a new pitch? Have you lost your fast ball? Some put it more bluntly than others but they all mean the same: Are you over the hill?

Roberts, now 31, won 20 games or more in six consecutive 300-inning years. In the last two seasons he lost a total of 40 games, 22 last summer when he won only 10 times.

Mayo Smith, his manager, has made it plain that he would like to see Robbie change his style from fast baller to cutie. Roberts persists in doing things his own way. Call it stubbornness. Call it pride. That is the way it is. This is the year of decision.

"It boils down to one thing," said Roberts. "I win or I don't. I think I will. I feel fine. I'm just going to pitch the same as ever. It is up to me. I have no complaints. I got plenty of chances to start last year. Sometimes I didn't have much."

"I'll come up with something. I'll win some way. You win or you don't. You either stay around or you eliminate yourself. It is up to me."

Many Oddities Recorded During Ohio Cage Season

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Oddities were a dime a dozen on Ohio's high school basketball front this season.

They included such things as bats bothering the boys during a game, a referee knocked down and trampled in a fast break, five kids named Mike in a single lineup, and a younger uncle playing with his older nephew on the same team.

The conversation-piece incidents are among highlights collected by The Associated Press in gathering data for the Class A and Class AA All-Ohio teams to be announced next week.

The flying bat incident occurred in the Alliance at Massillon contest, won by the Alliance Aviators in an overtime. The creature banged into a Tiger trying to shoot free throws — the Massillon boys missed both.

Referee John Mickle was the fast break victim in the Ashland at Mansfield tilt. John got up, called time, and had to be taped up before the game could go on.

The five Mikes—Frally, Hallrin, Deri, Jennings and Fix—were on the floor at the same time as Columbus St. Mary played Watertown, and the uncle-nephew combination plays with Buchtel-York's regionalists.

The nephew, Bill Wright, is a 17-year-old senior, but Uncle Denny Wright is a 16-year-old junior. Each is averaging over 20 per game.

Some of the boys figured Jerry Lucas, Middletown's sensational scorer, came up with a top-flight oddity when, after being held to 16 points by Lima in their first meeting, he counted 62 the second time around to win the game single-handed.

In one of the Hamilton games, Lucas was guarding Tony Blaine, the Big Blue's 6-foot-3 star. Lucas is 6-10, and Blaine wasn't doing too well. During a time out, Coach Warren (Porky) Scholler of Hamilton asked Blaine:

"What's the matter out there?" Tony replied:

"I don't know, coach, but there sure is a whale of a game going on ABOVE me."

Also getting some comment were:

In the Jackson Milton-Lordstown game, a player's long pass hit a running opponent on the head and bounded through the basket for two points.

In one of the Steubenville games, officials called 32 personal fouls when two men were going up on the boards after the ball while rebounding.

Pleasantville, against Maumee, made only one of 17 field goal tries in the first period—and lost the ball game 55-53.

The 19-3 Miller City victory over Pandora-Gilboa, saw the losers make their first score with eight seconds left in the third quarter, and their final point with 11 seconds to play in the contest.

Tiltonsville, which played four football games decided by a single point, also played four cage games decided by the same margin—and split even on the hairline decisions.

Ron McCulley, Bellaire guard, made a 68-foot desperation field goal (the season's longest?) in the sectional tournament against Bridgeport.

Convoy-Union led Van Del by five points as the final quarter started in the county tournament, but failed to score again and Van Del won it by 13.

George Heller, Portsmouth Trojan mentor, started the season with 12 good boys and high hopes. But one boy was married, another broke his arm, one underwent a back operation, two were dismissed for breaking training regulations, and another ruled ineligible for playing in a pre-season tourney.

One All-Ohio voter figured the biggest possibly oddity hasn't occurred yet.

He opined: "The biggest oddity of the season will be if Middletown doesn't win the Class AA state championship."

Avila Being Switched To Third Sack Spot

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Bob Avila, who has played second base for the Cleveland Indians for several seasons, is being sent to third.

Manager Bobby Bragan said Monday that Avila would be at third base and rookie Billy Moran at second in today's exhibition game against the Baltimore Orioles at Scottsdale.

"We want to take a good look at Moran at second," the manager explained, "and I also want to see Avila at third. I hear he did pretty well there last year."

Ashville Cager Awarded Trophy

CIRCLEVILLE — Richard Hoover, outstanding senior cager and all-around athlete at Ashville High School, has been named winner of the 1958 Bob Bowsher Trophy.

Selected by the 41 Pickaway County High School Hoop coaches, Hoover was said to represent "the spirit and character desired in a Bowsher trophy winner."

Close contenders for the award included John Lininger, New Holland pivotman.

Royals In Line For 2nd Place

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Royals can finish in a tie for second place in the Western Division of the National Basketball Assn., providing they win their final regular game of the season Wednesday night.

The resurgent Royals kept their hopes alive by overwhelming the St. Louis Hawks 122-84 in the only game played Monday night.

Cincinnati's record now is 32-39, while the second-place Detroit Pistons have completed their regular schedule with a 33-39 mark.

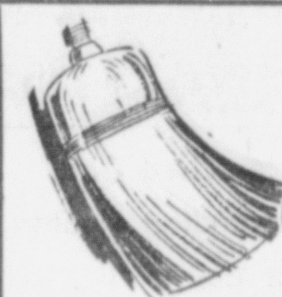

If the Royals can defeat the Lakers at Minneapolis Wednesday, Cincinnati and Detroit would end up tied for second, would then play a best-of-three playoff series.

Archie Dees Cops Point Title Again

CHICAGO (AP)—Archie Dees, top man in Indiana's championship team, won his second straight Big Ten basketball scoring title.

The 6-8 senior netted 560 points in 22 games for a 25.4 average. Don Ohl of Illinois finished second with 441 points in 22 games and a 20.0 average with Iowa's Dave Gunther third on 435 points in 22 games for a 19.7 average.

Aside from Dees and Ohl, George Kline of Minnesota was the only other Big Ten performer to average 20 points per game. Kline, finishing fourth, had 425 points in 21 games for a 20.2 average, second only to Dees.

WCH Freshmen Cagers Win Eight-Team Tourney

The Washington C. H. High School freshman basketball team made short work of Little Miami's frosh Monday night as they rode their fourth straight tournament victory into championship in the eight-team freshman competition from all over this area.

Led by the sharp shooting of Gil Crouse, Mike Wilson, Dave Reno and Tom Seaman, the Lions outscored the classy Little Miami squad, 49-41, to take top spot in the tournament.

It was only the second tournament defeat for the losers. Their first came in the first game of the tournament—also at the hands of Washington C. H.

Between that time and Monday night, the challengers had beaten Leesburg, Madison Mills, Greenfield and Wilmington before bouncing back to battle the champs.

"THE WHOLE tournament was a success, and it certainly gives us in Washington C. H. plenty to look forward to," WHS Athletic Director Fred Domenico said. He pointed out: "The way these freshmen performed, we ought to have plenty of good varsity basketball in a couple of years."

"We plan to do it again, it was a success on every point," he said of the tourney.

Domenico especially cited the assistance of J. M. York, timekeeper, Clyde Cramer, ticket director, and Herb Russell, Marvin Merritt, Russell Campbell, Bob Wise and Hugh Rea, who refereed.

The "much improved" Lions freshmen, who now have a season record of 12 victories and four defeats, had to show all their style to get past the Little Miami squad Monday. The visitors kept the game tied up, or nearly so, through the first half, and never were far behind in the second.

Crouse led scoring with 15 points but the offense was really a team affair: Wilson scored 10, Reno and Seaman 9 each, Kenneth Baker 4, and Jim Myers 2.

Ken Pierce led scoring for Little Miami with 17 points.

Other teams who participated in the eight-way freshman tournament were from Wilmington, Cedarville, Greenfield, Madison Mills, Leesburg and Bloomingburg.

Trophies were presented after Monday's game by Domenico to the winners and the runners-up. The whole Lions squad got together to accept its championship trophy, and the Little Miami captain accepted the second-place trophy for his team.

Tebbetts Sees Purkey As Help to Redlegs

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Manager Birdie Tebbetts thinks the mid-winter trade that brought Bob Purkey here from the Pittsburgh Pirates may give a big lift to the Cincinnati pitching staff.

Tebbetts said Monday: "He's the type of pitcher that makes enemy batters hit the ball in the dirt."

Man, 37, Handed Term for Slaying

NEWARK (AP) — Arnold Calhoun, 37, of nearby St. Louis, drew a 1-20 year sentence in Ohio Penitentiary Monday for the Christ-mas Eve slaying of Fred Mick, 45, also of St. Louis.

Calhoun was convicted of first degree manslaughter Friday. His sentence was imposed today by Common Pleas Judge Charles B. Holtzberry.

Police said Mick was shot to death at a party the night of Dec. 24. Calhoun claimed he shot Mick in self-defense.

Japanese Uses Eyes to 'Talk'

He Speaks No English In TV Theater Drama

NEW YORK (AP) — "You can communicate as well with the eyes as with words," says Ses-sue Hayakawa, the veteran Japanese actor. "An expression, a gesture tell much."

Hayakawa is one of the two actors in an unusual television drama to be presented on "Kraft Theatre" (NBC-TV) Wednesday (9 p.m., EST). In "The Sea Is Boiling Hot" he will portray a Japanese soldier, the lone inhabitant of a South Pacific island where an American flier para-chutes to safety in World War II.

The young American actor Earl Holliman plays the flier. Only he speaks English in the hour-long drama. Thus Hayakawa, at 68, faces one of the most challenging roles of his long career since his portrayal is confined to action, gesture and facial expression.

Hayakawa, you may recall, plays the Japanese prison camp commander in that excellent current motion picture, "The Bridge on the River Kwai."

But many forget that Hayakawa was one of the world's most popular movie stars from 1917 to 1927.

Hayakawa looks as if he were in his middle 40s. His dark hair is untouched by gray, his face un-lined.

"I stopped counting the years when I became 45," he said. "Aging is only a matter of true spirit. It exists only in the imagination, as do so many things. The creative mind that is absorbed by many things besides its own well-being does not age."

Gorman Scorns O'Neill Press Aides

DAYTON (AP) — Robert N. Gorman, Cincinnati attorney seeking the Democratic nomination for governor, Monday accused Gov. C. William O'Neill of "talking out of both sides of his mouth when it comes to state finances."

Gorman, a former member of the Ohio Supreme Court, told the Dayton Democratic Club "there are 18 press agents on the state payroll at a cost of $139,140 annually. Their principal function seems to be handing out misinformation to the public at the direction of Gov. O'Neill, rather than circulating facts from which newspaper-men can draw their own conclusions."

"Our Experience Saves You Money"

Easier Money Is Newest Catch Word

Dollars Less Dear Now, Interest Rates Cut By Lending Agencies

Editor's Note: "Easier money" is the new catch word. How much easier is it? The following, first in a series of three articles by Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst, takes us business loans first.

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — About the only thing the recession is being praised for today is that it ended the tight money policy that many complained was cramping their style.

From all corners of the country, but with the usual regional variations, come these reports:

"It's easier now to find money if you need to borrow than it was at the start of the year. For many kinds of loans the interest charges are smaller now than just a few months back. The repayment terms on some loans are less burdensome."

The movement started in the east and has yet to make much of a dent in the west coast's anti-inflation policy.

The switch from tight money to easier credit in most places is an attempt to cushion the slump in manufacturing and to pep up home building. Almost as a sideline it includes perking up consumer borrowing.

But the money managers have been moving cautiously. They supply a little more money as a weapon against recession. But they note that prices are sticking to their high perch, so they are skittish about furnishing too much more money lest that start inflation boiling again.

How much easier is money now? How does it help those wanting loans for a new car, a refrigerator, a new home, or to run or expand a business?

The cautious moves of the federal reserve board have affected chiefly the business borrower. Let's look at these first.

The moves: Cutting the discount rate, lowering bank reserve requirements, and furnishing more money by buying government securities.

The effect: Short term interest rates have dropped sharply; bond prices, both government and corporate, have risen and yields fallen; bank charges for business loans have slipped slightly; and the banks can make about three billion dollars more in loans than a month ago.

So far as the recession goes the results are mixed. Total bank loans to business haven't risen despite the larger supply of money and the slightly lower rates—demand for them is off. But corporations as well as the U. S. Treasury are floating new securities at lower interest rates than a few months back.

The sharp drop in short term interest rates has brought the treasury bill rate from 3 1/2 per cent to 1 1/4 per cent in four months. This could weaken further the rates that banks charge their business customers with the top credit rating — what bankers call the prime rate.

For the individual depositor there is a threat to this. If the banks get less for their loans, there's little chance of any further increase in the interest they will pay on savings accounts. If anything they're more likely to lower it.

Arkansas Dem Tapped by Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Monday nominated Democrat John S. Cross to be a member of the Federal Communications Commission. He succeeds Richard A. Mack, who resigned under fire.

Cross, 33, now is assistant chief of the State Department's telecommunications division. He has been in the communications field for about 22 years.

The nomination of Cross, a legal resident of Arkansas, is subject to confirmation by the Senate.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Cross has worked for the State Department since 1946.

Reports Made To 4-H Council

Honor Club Score Sheets Revised

The 4-H Council, meeting Monday night in the Extension Service office, revised the 4-H honor club score sheet. The revised score sheet will be sent to each advisor as soon as corrections can be made.

The Council heard two committee reports. Mrs. Frank Dill reported on the awards committee meeting and Bob Milburn on the livestock committee meeting.

The awards committee has made several minor changes in the 4-H awards which will be given this year. It also had made several changes in the procedure for handling the awards.

All Ohio report forms, secretary's books, news reporters scrap books and junior leadership project books are to be submitted to the Extension office Saturday, July 19. At this time the Awards Committee will meet to select outstanding boy, girl, junior leader, secretary and news reporter. It was felt that a better job of selection could be done if the committee had more time. Therefore, the selection will take place before the Fair.

THE SIX - COUNTY advisors training meeting to be held in Washington C. H. Thursday was discussed. The meeting is for new advisors from Fayette, Clinton, Ross, Franklin, Madison and Pickaway counties. Each county is permitted ten advisors free of charge. The 4-H Council discussed the names of different Fayette County advisors who might be interested and be able to attend. Those selected were Mrs. Willard Bonham, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Emery Lynch, Mrs. Robert Pero, Mrs. Norman Armbrust, Mrs. Robert Brubaker, Mrs. Virgil Wilburn, Mrs. Harley Ward, Mrs. Clyde Palmer, Mrs. Don Cook and Mrs. Charles Ellis.

The grooming clinics were discussed. The health and safety committee is responsible for conducting the senior grooming clinic scheduled for April 16 and the junior grooming clinic April 23. The committee is composed of Mrs. Joe Loudner, Mrs. Hugh LaFollette, Mrs. Keith Garinger and Wayne Baird.

The 4-H camp committee discussed its functions and decided to hold a meeting in the near future. The chairman, Rodney Acton, is to set the date.

Mrs. Norma Cunningham, home economics agent, reported on the subject matter training meetings for homemaking advisors. She stated that a total of 25 advisors attended the nutrition training meeting and they had hopes of a good crowd for the clothing training meeting at 1:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. Tuesday (today).

Phil Grover, associate agent, briefed the Council on the progress of the 4-H club organization which has been done. He said that, with the exception of two or three spots in the county, 4-H organization already had taken place or is planned for the near future.

Fish and Game Assn. Plans 'Swap Night'

Thursday night's meeting of the Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. at the lodge near Buena Vista will be "swap night" — but it will have its serious side, too.

"Swap night" is the night when the members bring "anything from watches to hound dogs to the meeting to swap." As one of the members said: "We always have a lot of fun with this. . . and sometimes the boys come away with good trades."

On the more serious side, there will be a discussion of the association's new youth program, which was started this year. Much of the discussion, it was said, will center on an expansion of the activities for the younger sportsmen of field and stream.

The association now has 267 adult members and already 29 youth members have been signed up. A wildlife movie will be shown by Game Protector Dave Krupla and then refreshments will be served to bring the evening to a close.

Ditch Improvement Given 'Go Ahead'

At the continuation of the first hearing on the improvement of the Lees Creek Ditch in Concord and Green Townships, held at the office of the county commissioners in the Court House Monday afternoon, a resolution was passed by the commissioners to proceed with the improvement.

Contrary to expectations, there was practically no opposition to the improvement among the 38 property owners who will share the costs.

However, there will be a final hearing on these costs on the afternoon of April 21, the date set by the commissioners when the county engineer is to have ready to present all the data and estimated costs to each involved property owner.

The improvement is to cover a distance of approximately eight miles of the ditch.

27 New Jaycees Inducted Here

Reports Are Given On Several Activities

Dinner, socializing and the induction of 27 new members highlighted the meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the Washington Hotel Monday night.

Most of the 27 new members joined the Jaycees during the membership campaign several weeks ago. For most of them, this was not the first Jaycee meeting they had attended, but it was their first as regular members.

Back with the Jaycees in time for the Monday meeting were three Washington C. H. members who went to Akron Sunday for the all-state meeting. They are William Williams, president, Jack Lyon, and Marlin Reno, who participated in all the business and social sessions on the second day of the quarterly meeting.

Forums and workshop sessions for Jaycee leaders highlighted the Akron session, they reported.

Dave Ogan reported on the Jaycees' All pro basketball game March 1, which featured professional football players in the role of basketball players. The event "ended in the black," he said, noting that profits will go into the Jaycees' community activities fund.

Next Jaycee business meeting is set for March 24. Topics on the agenda include plans for Jaycee "Bosses' Night," set for April 18, the Teen-age Road-e-o April 24, and Clean up, Paint up, Fix up Week.

Other events on the Jaycee calendar include the Outstanding Young Farmer luncheon in Columbus March 25 and the charter night banquet for the Sabina Jaycees the same day. Directors' meeting has been set for April 7.

Possible Sites For Industry Surveyed Here

The site committee of the Washington C. H. Development Corp. has surveyed six possible locations for new industry, William Stoughton, committee chairman, told a corporation board meeting at noon Monday.

The committee also has been in contact with the Detroit Toledo and Ironton, the Baltimore and Ohio, and the Pennsylvania Railroads, discussing possibilities of locating railroad spurs on proposed industrial sites, he said.

All sites were surveyed with a view toward their development for industrial installations. Taken into consideration were the possibility of laying utility lines, the cost of such installations and other matters of this sort.

Omar (Jim) Schwartz was named a director in place of Don Gibson, who resigned because his work keeps him out of town. Twelve of the corporation's 15 directors were at the meeting.

Tentative plans for an annual rockholder's meeting, to be held in the near future, were discussed. There have been 51 shares of stock sold (at $25 a share) since the January meeting, it was reported.

Getting Ready for Lions Minstrel

Leland Dorn Heads County Farm Bureau

Leland Dorn of Madison Mills will head the Fayette County Farm Bureau again this year. He was re-elected president by the board at its organization meeting.

The board also re-elected Percie Kennell, Union Township, for secretary and named Neil Rowland for vice president and Herbert Burton for treasurer.

Rowland, who lives in Wayne Township, succeeds Homer Wilson and Burton of Green Township takes the place of Glenn Smith. Neither Wilson nor Smith were up for reelection.

Members of the board were elected by the township Farm Bureau unit at their meetings following the traditional turkey suppers during the winter.

Other directors are Lewis Redd of Paint Township; Earl Elitzroth of Jefferson Township; Robert Pero of Concord Township; W. W. Morgan of Perry Township; Harold Rowland of Marion Township; Charles Shaper of Jasper Township.

The four women directors on the board were elected at the annual Farm Bureau meeting Nov. 5. They are Mrs. H. W. Melvin of Madison Township; Mrs. Maurice Sollars of Concord Township; Mrs. Glenn Heistand of Union Township and Mrs. Wilbur Hoppes of Wayne Township.

Steel, glass and chemical industries use about one-fifth of the coal production of the United States.

Two Plead Guilty To Bootlegging

Evidence Destroyed; Four Fines Ordered

William A. Lovell, acting judge of Municipal Court, fined two local men Tuesday on charges of keeping and selling intoxicating liquors illegally. Two state liquor control agents swore out the affidavits against the men.

Wilbur R. Smith, 65, of 617 E. Fourth St., pleaded guilty to charges of unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors, and unlawfully keeping a place for such sale. He was fined $100 and costs, with half the fine suspended on each charge. Confiscated evidence — a fifth of liquor — was ordered destroyed.

Howard Jett, 58, of the same address, entered a plea of guilty, to the same charges. He was fined $100 and costs, to be paid March 17, on the charge of unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor. The evidence was ordered destroyed. On the charge of keeping a place for the sale of intoxicating liquors, Jett was fined $100 and costs, with $50 suspended.

Mainly About People

Among those from Washington C. H. who attended the floral design school and flower show in the Youth Center at the Ohio State Fairground Sunday were Miss Ann Story, Mrs. George Kratz, Mrs. Marian Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell Smith. Tommy Bright, the nation's leading floral designer, was the narrator.

More Ohio Farm Research Urged

BRYAN (AP)—Additional research to aid Ohio farmers was advocated by Mike DiSalle, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, here today.

The former Toledo mayor said the question of farm prices and production can be resolved only on a national basis, but there are areas in which the state can be helpful. He listed these as education, research and service.

The Reynoldsburg plant of the Ohio Department of Agriculture, near Columbus, he said, could be further expanded to study plant industry problems with the addition of a greenhouse to check plant disease and pests.
